Thursday Morning Book Club – Nemesis by Philip Roth

Thursday, November 14th at 10:30 AM

Set in a Newark neighborhood during a terrifying polio outbreak, Nemesis is a wrenching examination of the forces of circumstance on our lives.

Bucky Cantor is a vigorous, dutiful twenty-three-year-old playground director during the summer of 1944. A javelin thrower and weightlifter, he is disappointed with himself because his weak eyes have excluded him from serving in the war alongside his contemporaries. As the devastating disease begins to ravage Bucky's playground, Roth leads us through every inch of emotion such a pestilence can breed: fear, panic, anger, bewilderment, suffering, and pain. - Amazon

Movie Night Feature Film – Parkland (PG-13)

Wednesday, November 20th at 7 PM

A recounting of the chaotic events that occurred at Dallas' Parkland Hospital on the day U.S. President John F. Kennedy was assassinated - Starring Zac Efron and Billy Bob Thornton. Free popcorn and water.

Wednesday Evening Book Club – Rule of the Bone by Russell Banks

Wednesday, November 20th at 7:30 PM

In the tradition Huckleberry Finn and The Catcher in the Rye, Russell Banks's quintessential novel of a disaffected homeless youth living on the edge of society "redefines the young modern anti-hero. . . . Rule of the Bone has its own culture and language, and Bone is sure to become a beloved character for generations" (San Francisco Chronicle). With a compelling, off-beat protagonist evocative of Holden Caulfield and Quentin Coldwater, and a narrative voice that masterfully and naturally captures the nuances of a modern vernacular, Banks's haunting and powerful novel is an indisputable—and unforgettable—modern classic.— Amazon.com
